

Holy Family News

Dear Parents/ Carers,

Thank you for your kind messages following the sad passing of Father Michael last week. We will keep you informed when we know arrangements for the funeral. We have been very busy and are very much looking forward to continuing our varied learning with our "No Pen Day" on Friday before we close for half term. Please remember that school is closed on Monday 30th October and we will be looking forward to seeing the children on Tuesday 31st October. Parent conferences will take place during w/c 6th November, appointment letters will go out this week.

Thank you for your continued support,

Mrs Booth

School News

CSI day

Last Thursday Y6 became CSI investigators after a crime was committed in the school library. They conducted a thorough investigation of the crime scene and interviewed suspects before writing up their findings. Even Mr Hough and Mrs Bamber were dressed appropriately in contamination suits.

Newman Mass

Our children represented Holy Family beautifully at the celebration mass last Wednesday with all the other Catholic schools in Oldham. They also enjoyed the opportunity to go inside Newman and see its stunning architecture.
