

Holy Family News

Dear Parents/ Carers,

I look forward to seeing you in school this week and next, as you attend the parent conferences with your child's class teacher. Thank you to all of you for making an effort to get your children here promptly each day. May I remind all families of the importance good attendance and punctuality, it has a bigger effect on your child's learning than you may realise.

Thank you for your continued support,
Mrs Booth
