Dear Parents and Carers,

I would like to give you some relevant information you may need concerning the forthcoming term and to also answer some relevant questions you may have.

Reading

- Books to be taken home and brought back to school daily.
- Please read with your child at least three times a week and discuss the books, signing the reading record when you do so.

Homework

- Will normally be set on Monday and due back in the following Monday
- Homework will usually include spellings, maths or literacy and times table practice.
- The children will be expected to complete their homework to the best of their ability.
- Parents may help, encourage, discuss etc...
- Spellings and times tables will be tested every Friday
- Homework club will be held on a Thursday dinner time if children wish to complete their homework in school.

P.E

- Monday and Friday
- Kit – Burgundy shorts, a pale blue t-shirt and suitable footwear.

Topic

Ancient Egypt

I look forward to working with you and your child throughout the year and thank you for your co-operation and continued support.
